5 KILLED in Kodagu

Madikeri/Mysuru, Aug. 9 (PS&BCT)- Heavy rains and the resultant landslides have started taking its toll in Kodagu and Mysuru Districts. This morning, five people of two families died after an 80-feet hillock behind their house collapsed on their homes at Cherangala village in Kodagu.

In Hanagodu near Hunsur of Mysuru district, 35-year-old Ganesh was killed last night when the wall of his house came crashing on him while he was fast asleep at Veeranahosahalli tribal hamlet.

The landslip in Kodagu occurred at Cherangala near Bhagamandala that has been receiving heavy rainfall since last week. Kodagu Police said that Atthadi and Kalana families had their houses next to each other and there was a hillock just behind their house. Today morning at around 10.30 am, the hillock collapsed on the two houses.

The incident was reported to the Police by neighbours who heard a loud thud. They rushed out only to see a mound of debris covering the houses. According to neighbours, there were five people inside the house last night and more are likely to be trapped. The details will be known only after the debris is cleared. Bhagamandala Police have rushed to the spot and immediate relief was not possible as the road leading to the house is blocked and it is raining incessantly.

VOICE OF THE READER

Radio-Kashmir off the air!

It's AIR now. Let cricket commentary go on...

Sir,

It has been described as the "Mother of all Coups" when Amit Shah, the Union Home Minister, announced on Monday (Aug.5) in the Parliament that the Centre was ending Kashmir's "special status" by rendering Article 370 "in-operative" and also in parallel repealing Article 35A which have so far given the State unnecessary privileges. The coup was so sudden that the Opposition didn't know what hit them !

My mind went back to almost 40 years when in January 1982 the England cricket team was touring India, I was in the commentary box for a game between Indian Board President's XI and England being played at Jammu. As per my usual commentary duties at the end of the pre-lunch session, I said: "I am handing over the mike back to AIR Srinagar/Jammu."

Seconds after that, a well-dressed gentleman, who introduced himself as the Station Director of AIR-Jammu, seriously interrupted me by saying: "You should always hand the mike over to Radio-Kashmir and not to AIR." I was perplexed but didn't know what to do but then slowly announced as Radio-Kashmir.

My transmission was interrupted by a co-commentator called Suresh Saraya, who said I should never drop the AIR word. The whole activity ended at that and I forgot all about it. But at the end of the match, the English Captain came up to me and wanted to know if Kashmir was a separate country. I blinked like a fool since I didn't know anything about it. But on Monday, Amit Shah's speech in the Parliament made me believe that I had made the mistake.

Owners to have their Say Tenants their Way

While Mysuru is currently witnessing bustling construction activity raising multi-storeyed structures all over the city in the form of residential apartments and glitzy shopping complexes commanding costs of real estate at dizzy, unprecedented amounts, the heritage city of yesteryears hosted humble dwellings that could be rented at rates rarely exceeding double digits. The palatial buildings housing public offices and the many imposing buildings belonging to royalty of the then Princely State of Mysore, such as Amba Vilas, Cheluvamba Mansion and others provided a striking contrast to the dwellings of most Mysureans until not too long ago. Even as cash-strapped aam janata of the city mostly lived in their ancestral homes, those who landed in the city either because of transfer or relocation seeking tranquil life could rent dwellings that fetched measly income to the owners prompting the popular saying of those days, "Fools build houses and wise people live in them." The owners could be heard cursing the Rent Controller who limited the rents for houses to be wholly used for residential purposes to embarrassing amounts.

Mysuru also hosted a number of buildings constructed by both the Government of the day and some well-known philanthropics offering free lodging facilities for travellers passing through the city. Most of them have suffered loss of their original good features over years due to neglect by successors of the munificent donors of the past. We are in an age of unbridled grabbing of land and buildings by fraudulent means with some functionaries in the Government Departments extending a helping hand for tempting consideration.

Much to the chagrin of old-timers of Mysuru, the city's skyline both in its central business district and extensions predominantly dotted by single-storeyed residential dwellings is fast changing as if to be in the august company of bigger cities such as Bengaluru. Outlay on structures mainly for residential purposes which used to be in thousands of rupees has now jumped to lakhs of rupees even crossing the bar at crores. Buying apartments in high-rise buildings, given the rapidly rising number lying locked is looked at more as an investment in real estate than for renting. After a long lull, we have just come across a mention of rent control in a section of the Press this week. Many positive moves figure in the Model Tenancy Act introduced by the Union Government which the tenants are sure to welcome but not the owners of buildings of residence.

Even as the property owners are restrained in the matter of deposit as security (changed to two months rent) and raising the rent, thanks to laxity of the implementing functionaries, the owners are sure to circumvent the law by having their say and typical tenants choosing to have their way, reducing the Rent Controller's plight as a paper tiger.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The rise of mega cities as centres of strong job creation is one of the defining characteristics of the twenty-first-century global economy. But it is not always a positive feature. In the developing world, as staggering as the challenges are (greater New Delhi, for example, has been absorbing 7,00,000 new inhabitants per year), urbanisation remains the best hope for alleviating poverty. The reasons why powerhouses such as New York, San Francisco, and London have become increasingly dominant economically are well-known. Large cities offering a huge array of interesting jobs, cultural attractions, and night-life are a magnet for young unattached workers. And the combination of large masses of highly specialised workers and firms leads to network and agglomeration effects that are difficult for smaller cities to match, particularly in areas like tech, biotech and finance. — Kenneth Rogoff in Business Standard

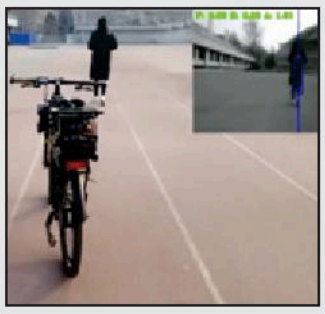
Innovative chip to power autonomous bicycle



Beijing: A team of scientists in China is developing a self-driving bicycle and the results seems to be pretty impressive.

In a short video presentation, the autonomous bicycle developed by scientists at Tsinghua University, in Beijing, can balance itself while also avoiding obstacles, following certain trajectories and obeying vocal commands.

It can do all these things thanks to a revolutionary type of computer chip that combines two different architectural approaches to computing that hadn't really worked well together until now, due to communication difficulties between the two systems. However, if this self-driving bike is any indication, the Chinese seem to have solved those issues.

Woman sees husband spiking her coffee

Michigan: A man was recently awarded light prison sentence after being found guilty of repeatedly spiking his wife's coffee with high doses of sleeping pills.

Therese Kozlowski filed for divorce from her husband, Brian, in June of 2018 but continued living in the same house. In fact, he even made coffee for her every day, which he used as an opportunity to feed her dangerous doses of drugs mainly used to treat allergies and insomnia.

Therese only found out after becoming suspicious and installing hidden cameras all over their house to see what Brian was up to. Shocking footage shows the man breaking up several tablets and dumping them in his wife's coffee before swishing it to make the drug melt faster.

Faced with irrefutable proof, Brian pleaded no contest to the charges which carries a maximum sentence of 15 years. Prosecutor Eric Smith sought 19 months in jail, but Brian was given five years probation and 60 days in jail, to be served on weekends.

Really...?

- Spider silk is one of the strongest materials available in nature. The best among them is the dragline silk which is produced by spiders to catch themselves when they fall. This silk is tougher than Kevlar and has the elasticity and lightness of nylon. For a long time, scientists tried finding a way to manufacture it in large scale. One way is to raise spiders, but it isn't possible as spiders are extremely territorial, and they have cannibalistic tendencies. Also, using natural spider silk to create an object is time-consuming and quite tricky. For instance, it took more than a million golden orb spiders and 70 human workers working for four years to make a single, 11-foot by 4-foot tapestry. The tapestry was completed in 2009. It is now on display in the American Natural History Museum.

2,136 Kodagu residents take shelter in 25 relief camps

- KRS water level touches 100 feet; maximum 124 feet

Madikeri/ Mysuru, Aug. 9 (PS& BCT)- Over 2,136 people are taking shelter in 25 relief camps across Kodagu District and the number of people being shifted to relief centres will see a dramatic increase as the rain is showing no signs of relenting. Life in Kodagu has been severely crippled with torrential downpour continuing to pound the district with more intensity. More than 25 places in Kodagu especially in the South region are in the grip of floods.

More than 500 families have been shifted to relief centres set up at various places and food and toilet facilities are being provided. More camps are expected to be set up with the rise in the number of people being rescued from their marooned homes and villages. Landslips have cut off road connectivity in more than 25 places and relief teams have been deployed to clear debris fallen on the roads.

RUNNING OUT OF FUEL

Kodagu might run of petrol, diesel and LPG in another two days. While some of the petrol pumps in main areas of Gonikoppal and Ponnampet are covered with rainwater, other fuel stations are finishing up last stocks. Fresh fuel has to come from Chennai via Mysuru for the situation to be normal.

Fuel supply from Mangaluru has been snapped as the National Highway 275 has caved in at many places and the movement of heavy vehicles have been banned.

At relief centres, there are people aged between zero and 80 and there are over 100 residents housed at Srimangala relief centre. Honnikoppalu village near Kirugooru in Ponnampet has been completely submerged and hundreds of people have been shifted to relief centres.

Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Company team from Mysuru leaves to Kodagu to restore power lines.

AREAS AFFECTED

In Madikeri Taluk, there are five places that are severely affected by rain and landslips – Bhagamandala, Hoddur, Kiggalu, and Kodamboor. In Virajpet Taluk, Karadigodu and Guhya have been severely affected. In Somwarpet, Kumbaragundi and Bettadakaadu villages have been affected. In Kushalnagar, Sai Layout, Kuvempu Layout, Thammanna Shetty Road, Indira and Nizamuddin Layouts have been affected.

In Virajpet town, Arasunagar, Nehrunagar, Subhashnagar, and Vijayanagar have been severely affected and areas including Malethirike Hill, Mogaragalli, Sunkadakatte and Appaiah Swamy Layout are reeling under floods.

13 ROADS CUT OFF

Roads and State Highways such as Virajpet-Makutta Road, Bhagamandala-Talacauvery Road, Bhagamandala-Madikeri Road, Murnad-Virajpet Road, Gonikoppa-Ponnampet Road, Koynadu-Jodupala Road, Ayyangeri-Bhagamandala Road, Napoklu-Paarane Road, Siddapura-Karadigodu Road, Bhagamandala-Napoklu Road, Murnad-Napoklu Road, Nittoor-Balele Road, Gonikoppal-Balele Road have been cut off.

Cauvery and Lakshmanatheertha are in full spate with no let up in torrential rains, submerging several villages and coffee estates, and crippling road connectivity, including highways, phone and power connections.

A red alert has been issued till August 10 as India Meteorological Department has predicted heavy to very heavy downpour (204 mm and above). Residents living in villages along these roads are stranded and using hilly routes to reach the mainland.

South Kodagu is bearing the brunt of torrential rains as several acres of paddy fields have been marooned and flooded-roads are caving in, cutting off vehicle movement. Many trees have uprooted and blocked road connectivity.

Kushalnagar, which was badly hit by floods last year, was flooded yesterday after more than 30,000 cusecs of water is being discharged from Harangi. People struck in flooded localities were rescued in inflatable boats and shifted to the relief centres.

The District Administration is making arrangements to start more relief camps as more villages were being marooned and the affected people are being rescued. Steps have been taken to reach out relief materials to the needy in the affected villages.

Meanwhile, heavy rain in the catchment area of the Cauvery and its tributaries since the last few days has increased the storage levels of major reservoirs. Today's level at Krishna Raja Sagar in Mandya District has touched the 100-feet mark as against the maximum level of 124.80 feet. There is an inflow of 60,000 cusecs and the dam might reach its maximum level in another two or three days.

Shift Barricades

Sir,

The metal barricades fixed on Hunsur Road, near the junction of Hunsur Road - Gokulam Road is not serving any purpose.

The barricades are far away from the junction and hence the vehicles slow down much before the junction. When the vehicles approach the junction, because of the space available before the junction, most of the motorists accelerate making it difficult for the vehicles coming from Gokulam Road to take a right turn to enter Hunsur road.

I fail to comprehend how the Traffic Police can be so casual in their approach in attending to a small job like fixing barricades to act as speed-breakers. Because of wrongly placed barricades, the seldom available Traffic Police who have ignored the issue, have to regulate the traffic.

Barricades should act as speed-breakers and need to be rightly placed on the roads, to help the motorists.

Mysuru-N'gud Highway Blocked

More than 1,25,000 cusecs water released from Kabini reservoir

Mysuru, Aug. 9 (RS,VNS&KS)- A day after the floodgates were opened at Kabini reservoir, National Highway-766 connecting Tamil Nadu and Kerala via Nanjangud was blocked near Mallanamoole Mutt this morning, as a result of overflowing Kapila.

More than 1,25,000 cusecs of water was released to the river through Kabini owing to heavy rainfall in the catchment area. Sources said more water could be released later in the day.

Traffic Diverted

The road between Mallanamoole Mutt and the South India Paper Mill has been blocked and there is over four to five feet of water on the Highway. The bridge across Kapila near Suttur village too is submerged cutting off the link between Mysuru-Hosakote and Suttur.

Traffic from Mysuru side to Nanjangud has been diverted to Varuna, Kuppegala and Taayur to reach Nanjangud while vehicles coming from Gundlupet are diverted towards Hullahalli Circle and Hejjege to reach Mysuru.

Mysuru Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar, SP C.B. Ryshyanth, Nanjangud Tahsildar Mahesh Kumar visited the spot to assess the situation. Nanjangud MLA Harshavardhan has also been camping in the town and monitoring the relief work along with the officials.

Relief Camps Opened

Meanwhile, people living in low lying areas in Nanjangud town were shifted to a relief camp at Girija Kalyana Bhavan next to Srikanteshwara Temple.

This apart, Swamy Ayyappa Temple, Sri Chamundeshwari Temple, Parashurama Temple and Bathing Point located on the banks of Kapila have also been submerged. About 50 houses in the town are said to have collapsed owing to heavy rainfall.

Bandipur Road Blocked

Heavy rains in Wayanad in Kerala and the overflowing of Moolehole River has affected the vehicular movement between Gundlupet in Karnataka and Sulthan Bathery in Kerala passing through Bandipur. According to sources, efforts are being made to divert the vehicles, stranded at the Maddur Range check post, via alternative routes.

Meanwhile, KSRTC has stopped plying buses to Kerala from Mysuru as H.D. Kote has been cut off. However, alternative road has been identified but it is difficult for the buses to ply. KSRTC has stopped bus services to Mangaluru via Madikeri as NH-275 has been blocked.

Has Modi found Final Solution to Kashmir ?

Do we need a Holocaust Museum?

The morning of Monday, 5th August, 2019 will be remembered as the Red Letter Day, as the historic day of Independent India. If you wonder why, the answer is in the historic decision taken by the BJP-NDA Narendra Modi Government on that Monday morning in the Rajya Sabha. That was the morning when the Modi Government finished the unfinished job of Aug. 15, 1947 partition of India into Muslim Pakistan and Secular India.

This responsibility of securing to divided new India and its people what is their due — under the Constitution of India, namely, Democracy, Secularism and Equality — irrespective of religion or region, has always been the burden of the Government in power. Sadly, with regard to J&K, this responsibility was never discharged by successive Governments since Independence, though 72 long years have passed into the dark recess of history. Even Atal Bihari Vajpayee's BJP-NDA Government was, sadly, a mirror image of the earlier Congress Governments.

J&K has always been given a special status under the Temporary Provision of Article 370 and Article 35A for the reason that it was a Muslim majority State. Nobody seems to have realised that in a Secular India the question of religious majority and minority status of a State does not find validity under the Constitution. But an exception was made under the Temporary Provision of Article 370 which the successive rulers took political and financial advantage treating it as sacrosanct. Instead of annulling it for the sake of unity and integrity of India, successive Union Governments turned a Nelson's eye on it.

This Temporary Article 370 and also Article 35A, in fact, were the weakest links in the chain of Articles our Constitution is made of. Has it not been said that the strength of a chain lies in its weakest link? Now that these two weak links have been removed, the Constitution is doubly strengthened. For the first time, I personally feel I am living in a United India after it was truncated in 1947.

FIELD OF STELAE: Holocaust Memorial at Berlin.

Muslim 'leaders' in Kashmir were making all kinds of demands like more autonomy, independence and a section wanting to accede to Pakistan. All because there is Muslim majority. Can the majority Hindus in other States claim preferential treatment over the minority Muslims on the same skewed logic? Sadly, when the Hindu Kashmiris in the Valley were driven away by the Muslim militants neither the successive Central Governments nor the State Governments could do anything to keep them in their own land of birth.

Be that as it may, I am musing on this issue because of the increase in the number of messages I started getting on the social media. Last evening, I received a forwarded WhatsApp video link which the sender wanted me to watch and listen. The headline itself was quite loaded I thought — 'Confessions of the last Indian Hindu.' It was by Shefali Vaidya delivered sometime in 2017 but put to circulation probably now for its topicality in view of the abrogation. She is quite articulate in her harangue in English and the subject was about how Hindus were treated by Muslims, sometimes with a little help from the fellow Hindus, in different parts of the country and at different times of history. A few examples may suffice to understand her feelings about the way her own people, Goud Saraswat Brahmins (GSB) and other Hindus were treated for centuries past by the Muslim rulers.

As we know, GSBs claim their roots, as a racial people, to Kashmir Valley. But, following Muslim occupation they were given three options — of converting to Islam or to get killed or to leave the Valley. Naturally, majority of them decided to leave their hearth and home and moved Southwards. She then talks of how after 1947, Kashmiri Hindus were forced to flee likewise and the successive Governments didn't do anything saying it was Kashmir's problem.

She then talks of Tipu Sultan, whose birthday is being celebrated in Karnataka since 2013 when Siddharamaiah became the Chief Minister saying he was a great patriot when majority of people considered him a tyrant who indulged in conversion and loot. But, Hindus in other parts of India thought it was not their problem, that it was Karnataka's problem!

She also talks of 'Love Jihad.' When in West Bengal the immersion connected with Durga Puja was banned, Hindus felt it was a Bengal problem and didn't protest.

When 40,000 Rohingya Muslims were driven out of Myanmar and settled in India, Hindus did not object saying it was not their problem. So, according to her, Hindus did not protest when injustice or violence was meted out to Hindus living in different States or groups saying it was not their problem.

Listening to her video, I thought her inspiration for that kind of narration came from a book written by a Jew which I happened to read many years ago and dealt with the same problem that she mentions about Hindus. I quote the text from the scrap book I have maintained:

First they came for the socialists, and I did not speak out — because I was not a socialist.

Then they came for the trade unionists, and I did not speak out — because I was not a trade unionist.

Then they came for the Jews, and I did not speak out —because I was not a Jew.

Then they came for me — and there was no one left to speak for me.

— Martin Niemöller

Having said this, the most purposeful suggestion that came from Shefali Vaidya relates to a Museum to be set up to commemorate what she calls the Hindu Holocaust. Probably, she got inspiration from Meenakshi Lekhi, a senior Supreme Court Advocate and BJP MP, who had tweeted on June 28, 2018 as follows:

"Holocaust Museum in Berlin to remind people of such dangers for all times to come. Wish we had a similar Museum in Delhi to remind people about the sins of Emergency. Which saw breakdown of Constitution, murders, nasbandis, jailing political opponents... NEVER AGAIN."

According to Shefali Vaidya, we (read Hindus) need a Museum like this to honour the Hindu Holocaust. Documenting every case of Hindu genocide from the skull tower of Khilji to Aurangzeb excesses, to the Goan Inquisition....to the partition slaughter to the Kashmiri Pandits' exodus.

This takes me to my own visit to the unique Holocaust Museum and Memorial in Berlin (see pic. above), Germany, in the year 2017. I think, reproducing what I had written in my Abracadabra dated Oct.26, 2017 will be eloquent enough to express my feeling and opinion:

We took a drop at the Holocaust Museum and the Memorial to the murdered Jews of Europe — a unique Memorial known as Field of Stelae (an upright stone slab). It is like a maze. There are 13 pathways which are wheelchair-accessible. The books, literature, cinemas about Holocaust and the persecution of Jews during Hitler's rule were mostly written and produced by Jews, a race very intelligent and creative. Naturally, there could be exaggeration, I thought. However, after visiting Dachau in Munich I changed my opinion. About it later.

The World War II and the German Government's conduct towards its own citizens under Hitler, specially the minorities — Jews, Sintas and Roma — and the way they were persecuted should be a lesson to all the Governments across the world. I was wondering why in Hitler's scheme of persecuting minorities, Muslims were not mentioned. Could be, their number was minuscule and presence negligible. Could be also for the reason Turkey remained (wisely) neutral between both the Axis and the Allies until it saw victory for Allies and (again wisely) joined the Allies in February 1945, just before the war ended. Good. May be, that is the reason Muslims don't figure in the evil design of Hitler like what he did to the Jews.

Jews were persecuted in every way possible, apart from Hitler's "final solution" for Jewish problem (if it was a problem at all). For example, from 1st April 1933, Jewish shops should not be entered by Germans by race. Hitler's private force called SA would put up posters: "Germans do not buy from Jews." Or "Germans buy only at German shops." Germans abroad were also asked to boycott Jewish shops. The Jewish manufacturing companies were also threatened. However, bread is more important for a human being than pride. The campaign was stopped when it was found people did not take part in the boycott."

It never occurred to me even after seeing the Jewish Holocaust Museum and Memorial in Berlin that Hindus of India too will need one such Museum, considering the human massacre and the holocaust Hindus in India had suffered over centuries till we got Independence in 1947. Now, after reading Meenakshi Lekhi's tweet and watching Shefali Vaidya's video, I guess they have a point.

PM Modi's address to Nation: Bright future for J&K after Article 370

New Delhi, Aug.9-In his first address to the Nation yesterday lasting 40 minutes, after revocation of Article 370, Prime Minister Narendra Modi assured that restrictions in Jammu and Kashmir (J&K) would be relaxed soon.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi

Following the revoking of Article 370, the decision to put J&K under the governance of the Central Government had been taken after careful consideration, he said.

The PM pointed out that Article 370 was being used as a tool to spread terror and that it was time for all Indians to work together to make J&K a violence-free region.

Speaking at length on the issues of terrorism and corruption in the region, he promised industrial development which in turn would boost employment and make life better in the conflict-hit region of J&K.

The harm Article 370 did to the people of J&K and Ladakh was never discussed as it did not suit the successive governments. But what Article 35A and Article 370 did was, it gave only separatism, nepotism and corruption to the people of the State, he said.

Hailing the local population, the Prime Minister said that people of Jammu and Kashmir and Ladakh have always thwarted Pakistani designs to stoke fires of terrorism and separatism there.

Raising the issue of the rights of the women in the region, he said that the rights enjoyed by the daughters of other regions were never enjoyed by the daughters of J&K. Besides, in the last three decades, almost 42,000 innocent people had lost their lives, he added.

He promised the Central Government employees, including security forces who would be posted to J&K that financial benefits like LTC (Leave Travel Concession), HRA (House Rent Allowance) would be extended.

Referring to the job scenario, the Prime Minister said that vacant posts in Jammu and Kashmir would be filled and this would benefit the youth of the region. This would be made possible by encouraging the Union Territory as well as private companies to create jobs for local youths.

He urged the film fraternity, including the film industries of Mumbai, Tamil and Telugu to make J&K a favourite destination for film shooting again.

Addressing the concerns of the people of the region, the PM stressed that once the situation returned to normal in J&K, it would be accorded Statehood again and the people could once again have their own elected representatives, Ministers and Assembly.

Helpline numbers for residents outside J&K announced

New Delhi, Aug. 9 - In view of the tense situation in Kashmir and upcoming Eid festival, Srinagar District Magistrate Shahid Choudhary yesterday announced helpline numbers for residents of Jammu and Kashmir living outside for assistance in travelling back home and contacting relatives in Kashmir.

"DC Office #Srinagar has established two helplines 94190-28242, 94190-28251. Residents/ Students outside State can contact. Families back home are also using these lines to reach out," he tweeted.

Choudhary also said that for passengers in transit, 'langars' have been set up, and accommodation and transport arranged.

"Special trains/coaches from Udhampur/Jammu have been coordinated in view of large number of workers including those going home on Eid. DTM Mr. Chetan coordinating. +919797532910," he added.

"Workers intending to visit homes in other States are being facilitated. 56 buses carrying 1,940 passengers moved yesterday. More today," Choudhary said in another tweet. He said more than 300 vehicles are pressed for the movement of students from various districts of Kashmir, Jammu, Ladakh and outside the region.

Kashmir has been on lockdown since Sunday and all communication services in the region have been blocked, including cellular network, landline, mobile internet, and broadband connectivity.

Rotavirus, TD vaccine to be introduced: ADC

Mysuru, Aug.9- Additional Deputy Commissioner B.R. Poornima has said that the Health Department will be introducing Rotavirus and Tetanus and Diphtheria (TD) Vaccine shortly.

B.R. Poornima

Chairing a meeting of the Rapid Task Force of the District Health Department at the DC Office here yesterday, Poornima asked all concerned Departments to join hands with Health Department for successful introduction of the vaccine.

Pointing out that children must be administered this vaccine atleast three times (6th week, 10th week and 14th week) inorder to prevent death from diarrhea, vomiting, dehydration etc., she said that the vaccine will be orally administered through a special syringe with each dose containing 2.5 ml of the vaccine.

Stating that the TD Vaccine will be administered to children aged between 10 and 16 years, she said that the Education Department must take the responsibility of ensuring the success of the vaccination drive.

WHO official Dr. Sudheendra Nayak said that Anganawadi staff and ASHA workers have been trained on administering the vaccine. Dr. Nayak emphasised the role of school headmasters and Nodal Officers in the success of the drive.

DHO Dr. R. Venkatesh said that National De-worming Day will be observed on Sept. 25, 2019 and as part of it, school children are given de-worming tablets at Anganawadi Centres and Primary Health Centres.

Pointing out that all children aged between one and 19 years have to be given de-worming tablets, the DHO said that the parents of children must be sensitised on the health problems posed by the worms.

He also said that it is the responsibility of parents that children are ensured pure drinking water, covered food articles and also educated on maintaining personal hygiene.

The Additional DC also reviewed mortality rate between April and June this year, during which it was found that about 10 women had died. The ADC sought information on the hospitals where the deceased pregnant lactating mothers were treated. She also held discussions with the family members of the deceased pregnant women, who attended the meeting.

B.R. Poornima asked the Health Officers to ensure that mortality deaths do not occur in the future and that doctors should conduct regular health check-ups of pregnant women and lactating mothers.

Bearing the brunt of Rainfall

Travel plans of Mysureans and Bengalureans during this long weekend go for a toss

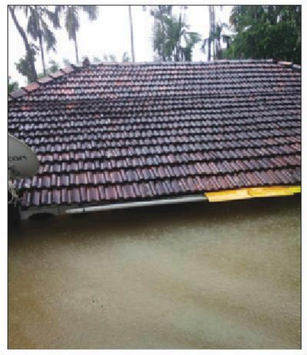
If you are planning for a weekend trip to Kodagu now, you may have to exercise caution as Red Alert has been declared in the hilly district following heavy rains and landslides. The plans of Mysureans and Bengalureans to visit Kodagu this long weekend starting today (Varamahalakshmi, Second Saturday, Sunday and Bakrid holiday on Monday) have been hit. Similarly, next week, Thursday is Independence Day, and opens the possibility of another long weekend.

While tourists say rain has sent their travel plans for a toss, the ground situation in Kodagu is really bad as rain is showing no sign of relenting. It has been five days since it is raining heavily in South Kodagu, forcing the District Administration to ship boats to rescue families stranded amidst water and coffee estates. Virajpet Taluk is the worst affected with several crucial roads cutting off.

Traffic between Virajpet, Gonikoppal, Ponnampet, Balele, Kutta, Madikeri, Murnad, Napoklu, Birunani, Srimangala, Badagarakeri and Nalkeri has been blocked as roads are submerged under 6 feet deep water. Along with Kodagu, even Mysuru district is bearing the brunt of monsoon mayhem as several roads are blocked with more than 1,25,000 cusecs of water being released from Kabini and Taraka Reservoirs.

Nanjangud Road (Bengaluru-Nilgiri Road) leading to Ooty has been blocked and traffic has been stranded. In this special feature, we bring you scenes from Kodagu and Mysuru in a set of fresh photos. —Ed

WOMEN POWER: When a disaster strikes, it always calls for a joint effort by the District Administration to bring solace for the people affected by floods. This picture shows three women officers (from left) Kodagu DC Annies Kanmani Joy, SP Suman D. Pennekar and ZP CEO Lakshmipriya walking the talk at Karadigodu in Siddapura yesterday. In the absence of Ministers and elected representatives, the officers are on field since the last five days assessing the damage and bringing relief to people. They are ensuring that relief reaches Ground Zero without any delay.



IN FULL FLOW: River Cauvery is in full flow at Bethri village near Murnad. Normally in June-July, the river overflows inundating surrounding areas. This year, in August, after a delay of more than a month, there is a massive flow in the river and water has submerged areas that are well beyond the river limits. Hundreds of affected people have been shifted to relief centres.

ISLAND, NOWHERE TO GO: This is all that remains of a house near Guhya on the banks of Kakkattunaadu River. 10 houses have been submerged and the entire Kakkattunaadu has become an island.

WORST AFFECTED: A view of another house near Kakkattunaadu and the residents say that never in the history, their village has submerged. River Cauvery is overflowing and there is 10 feet of water on roads and residential areas.

LIFESAVER: A resident near Siddapura in Kodagu being rescued with a boat by para-military forces.

BOATS TO THE RESCUE: Inflatable boats being taken to rescue people who have been trapped by flood waters from Lakshmanatheertha River in South Kodagu. Over 60 families have been rescued from Kanoor village yesterday.

ROAD OR SLUSH? Maggula main road near Shaneshwara Temple in Virajpet that has turned slushy due to rains and landslip.

FOOD FOR AFFECTED: People are being served food at a relief centre established near Karadigodu in Siddapura where Cauvery is in full spate.

LINK CUT OFF: This is a scene from Gonikoppal Bypass Road. The link between Gonikoppal and Ponnampet has been snapped as the Keerepole (originally a rivulet) is overflowing, submerging the surrounding areas. Picture right shows the broken link between Gonikoppal and Ponnampet.

DESERTED EXCEPT FOR A LONE SOUL: This place at Bhagamandala near Bhagandeshwara Temple used to serve lunch (Prasadam) to devotees. Now, except for a lone priest, not a single soul is seen in the premises. Picture right shows 3 feet water at the entrance of the famed Bhagandeshwara Temple. The Triveni Sangama near the temple is overflowing.

A ROAD TURNED HORRIBLE: The Birunani-Badagarakeri Road's present state where not even a person can walk safely and it will take months for the regular traffic to be restored. The District Administration and the elected representatives have the responsibility of restoring many such roads in Kodagu that have been damaged.

ROAD GOES UNDER: The Saragur Road in H.D. Kote caved in yesterday evening as water gushed under the road. This scene was captured live by youths and it went viral on social media.

NO TRAVEL TO OOTY: The Bengaluru-Nilgiri road that connects Mysuru and Ooty has been blocked for traffic as more than 1 lakh cusecs of water is being released from Kabini and Taraka dams.

First ODI abandoned due to rain

Guyana, Aug. 9 (UNI)- The first match of the three ODI match series between India and Windies was abandoned due to rain here at the Providence Stadium yesterday. Earlier, Indian captain Virat Kohli won the toss and elected to field first after a delayed start due to wet outfield.

The second interruption after the match started after the 13th over with West Indies reaching 54 for 1 with Evin Lewis (40 not out) and Shai Hope (6 not out) at the crease. Meanwhile, the outfield kept deteriorating with damp patches forming on the ground due to continuous drizzling. The ground staff covered them with sawdust but it didn't help much.

BJP sets enrolment of two lakh members in Mysuru district

Mysuru, Aug.9 (PM&DM)- District BJP President M. Shivanna has said the party has set a target of enrolling two lakh new members in the district.

Addressing a press meet at Patrakarthara Bhavan here yesterday, M. Shivanna said that the BJP has begun membership drive with Prime Minister Narendra Modi launching the drive at New Delhi on July 7.

Maintaining that over 40,000 people have enrolled with the party so far after the drive was launched last month, Shivanna asserted that the two lakh target set by the party will be met by the end of this month.

Noting that a 'Pramukh' has been appointed to oversee the enrolment drive in all the 2,124 booths coming under Assembly segments of Mysuru district, Shivanna said that as part of the drive, the party is taking up a sapling plantation drive simultaneously, during which five saplings will be planted in every booth.

Pratap Simha says sorry to Prakash Raj

Pratap Simha Prakash Raj

Bengaluru, Aug. 9 - Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha yesterday regretted posting derogatory remarks against Actor Prakash Raj and withdrew his comments from Twitter and Facebook "unequivocally."

"Dear Prakash Raj, I had posted a derogatory article against you and your family on 2nd and 3rd October 2017. However, I understand these were unwarranted and hurtful. Therefore, I unequivocally withdraw and regret Twitter and FB posts," Simha tweeted.

Prakash Raj was quick to welcome the gesture and responded on Twitter.

"Thank you Pratap Simha. I accept your apology. We may have differences with our ideology but let us not get personal and dirty on social media as we both are successful individuals in our respective fields. It's our responsibility to set good examples."

It may be recalled that at a function on Oct. 2, 2017, the actor lashed out at those who "celebrated" the killing of his family friend and journalist Gauri Lankesh.

He even had slammed Prime Minister Narendra Modi for not condemning the killing.

Instead, Modi was following those who hailed Lankesh's killing, Raj had alleged at the event. Raj had even called Modi an "actor" bigger than him.

"When I see such actors who are acting as though nothing has happened, I have been given five national awards, I feel like returning it to them. They are bigger actors than me," Raj had said at the event.

Raj's statement kicked up a row and the Mysuru MP made personal attacks on social media against his family and his career, following which the actor had filed a defamation case of Rs. one against Pratap Simha.

Recalling cherished memories of Quit India

Freedom fighters offering floral tributes to the bust of Mahatma Gandhi to mark Quit India Movement at Freedom Fighters Park at Subbarayanakere in city this morning.

Mysuru, Aug.9 (RKB&NNN)- "The elected representatives of today, who have no knowledge of the sacrifices that people did during the freedom struggle of the country, treat freedom fighters like caged parrots by offering them crumbs whenever the old freedom fighters demanded something," regretted Mysore City and District Freedom Fighters Association President Dr. M.G. Krishnamurthy.

He was speaking after hoisting the National Flag and offering floral tributes to the bust of Mahatma Gandhi to mark the Quit India Movement at the Freedom Fighters Park in Subbarayanakere here this morning.

He recalled the time of the Quit India Movement and how many in Mysuru were involved in this fight for freedom.

Secretary Prof. Ashwathanarayan, T. Venkatachalaiah, T. Puttanna, P.Y. Venkatadri, Lingaiah and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Faze

Pronunciation: FAYZ.
Meaning: To disturb the composure of : disconcert, daunt.
Origin: Faze (not to be confused with phase) first appeared in English in the early 1800s—centuries after the works of Shakespeare and Chaucer were penned. But both of those authors were familiar with the word's ancient parent: faze is an alteration of the now-rare verb feeze, which has been in use since the days of Old English (in the form fēsian), when it meant "to drive away" or "to put to flight." By the 1400s, it was also being used with the meaning "to frighten or put into a state of alarm." The word is still used in some English dialects as a noun meaning "rush" or "a state of alarm or excitement."
Example: "The heat didn't faze the crowd, though, as families swarmed up to Kirkbride Park to browse vendors and watch performances." — Johanna Armstrong, The Fergus Falls (Minnesota) Daily Journal.

THE ODD WORD

Brogue

A thick and heavy shoe.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A bad egg

Meaning: Someone or something that disappoints expectations.
Origin: The allusion is clearly to the disappointment felt when cracking or shelling an egg, only to find that it is bad. The earliest use of the phrase in that context that I have found is in the Milwaukee Daily American, September 1856:
"Mayor Wood is moving heaven and earth to procure his renomination. One of his dodges is, to get up letters in the newspaper, pretending to emanate from 'distinguished citizens,' including merchants, mechanics and working men, soliciting him in the most pathetic terms to present himself to the dear people. There are also on the list a number of notorious blacklegs whom Woods keeps in pay. He is a bad egg."
